How ADHD impacts adults and what can be done

The impact of Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) in adults has become the focus of the public and many mental health professionals. A presentation on the impact of ADHD in adults will be given at the Children and Adults with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (CHADD) Chapter of Central Oklahoma meeting on Tuesday, February 13th at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will be in the lower level of Deaconess Medical Office Building, located at 5701 North Portland in Oklahoma City.

The featured presentation at the meeting will be “The impact of ADHD in Adults” a video by a nationally known researcher on ADHD, Dr. Russell Barkley of the State University of New York. There will also be a discussion moderated by Dr. Patrick Mason, Ph.D., Chairperson of the Professional Advisory Board of the Central Oklahoma CHADD Chapter and a Psychologist with VA Hospital.

Registration is not required and the meeting is open to the public with a personal or professional interest in ADD or ADHD. For more information, call 405-722-1ADD or 419-4176. For more information on this and other programs of the Oklahoma City-County Health Department call 427-8651 and for more information about CHADD go to the web site at <http://www.chadd.org>.
